

Contents

Contributors	iii
Foreword	ix
1. Authenticity and linguistic variety among new speakers of Basque Jacqueline Urla, Estibaliz Amorrortu, Ane Ortega, and Jone Goirigolzarri	1
2. Lemko linguistic identity: Contested pluralities Michael Hornsby	13
3. New speakers of Minderico: Dynamics and tensions in the revitalization process Vera Ferreira	26
4. Kormakiti Arabic: A study of language decay and language death Ozan Gulle	38
5. Identity and language shift among Vlashki/Zheyanski speakers in Croatia Zvezdana Vrzić and John Victor Singler	51
6. The sociolinguistic evaluation and recording of the dying Kursenieku language Dalia Kiseliūnaitė	69
7. Language Revitalization: The case of Judeo-Spanish varieties in Macedonia Esther Zarghooni-Hoffmann	80
8. El árabe ceutí, una lengua minorizada. Propuestas para su enseñanza en la escuela Francisco Moscoso García	93
9. Multilingualism and structural borrowing in Arbanasi Albanian Jana Willer-Gold, Tena Gnjatović, Daniela Katunar, and Ranko Matasović	103
10. Reflections of an observant linguist regarding the orthography of A Fala Miroslav Valeš	115

11.	Language Landscape: Supporting community-led language documentation Sandy Ritchie, Samantha Goodchild, and Ebany Dohle	121
12.	BaTelÒc: A text base for the Occitan language Myriam Bras and Marianne Vergez-Couret	133
13.	The first Mirandese text-to-speech system José Pedro Ferreira, Cristiano Chesi, Daan Baldewijns, Daniela Braga, Miguel Dias, and Margarita Correia	150
14.	Bridging divides: A proposal for integrating the teaching, research and revitalization of Nahuatl Justyna Olko and John Sullivan	159
15.	Brief considerations about language policy: An European assessment Francisco Carvalho Vicente and Paulo Carvalho Vicente	185